

Displays and Exhibits

As an educational and cultural institution, the NorthEast-Millerton library welcomes exhibits and displays of interest, information and enlightenment to the community. Displays of handiwork, historical material, nature study, or any other material may be offered for display based on its suitability and availability.

Displaying or exhibiting of collections or materials by the Library does not necessarily indicate the Library's endorsement of the issues or events promoted by the collection of material being displayed or exhibited.

The Library reserves the right to deny a request if it is deemed inappropriate for general audiences. The Library facilities are public spaces which are used and viewed by community members of all ages. This factor will be a prime consideration in the approval or rejection of a display request.

The Library will not remove a display, exhibit, or item because certain members of the community may disagree with its content. Those who object to the content of an exhibit must complete the "Patron Complaint Form" located on the Library's website.

The Library assumes no responsibility for the preservation or protection, and no liability for possible damage or theft of any item displayed or exhibited. All items placed in the Library are there at the owner's risk. A release must be signed by the exhibitor before any artifact can be placed in the Library. The Library will not provide storage space and reserves the right to dispose of exhibits that have been abandoned after one month after the conclusion to the exhibit.
